

Do you believe there is a God?

- Yes I do
- I believe in a Creator of sorts, God is just one name
- I don't necessarily believe in God but I believe in a higher being I guess

What do you believe about God?

- I believe that He is there to help us and take care of us
- Whoever or whatever it is has a lot of control in our lives
- I don't really know – we can't know
- God is the supreme Creator
- To me it's probably someone to look to for advice

Have you ever read the Bible?

- I took a Bible literature class in college but that's about it
- No I don't. I'm skeptical of organized religions led by men

Do you think the Bible is reliable?

- It was written a very very long time ago. The wording in some parts of it can be taken out of context because our modern context is wayyyy different now.
- There are some changes in it but I still think it's fine
- I believe that the Bible is God's word and that it is perfect
- The overarching messages are good and those are the things that can be taken away from it.

Do you believe that there is a Heaven?

- I'm not 100% sure on that one. I would hope so.
- I try to live in such a way that if there is a judgement someday that I hope they would look positively on me
- I believe if you live according to the 10 commandments as best you can and by putting your effort forward, then you will have an afterlife
- [new guy] Until you get there, you won't know

How would you define sin and do you believe there is such a thing as sin?

- Yeah, the things that harm the people around you for your own benefit are sinful
- There's no hierarchy of bad or wrong to me, it's all wrong – we should not judge each other because we are all fallible
- I don't think by nature mankind is sinful, but this is just my opinion. I'm not too familiar with what the Bible says about sin, but by nature, I don't think that man is sinful. I would say no to that question, but if you have the answer I would like to know!
